

Conference

LIVED TIME

Routines, Temporal Norms and Identities

Conference

LIVED TIME

Routines, Temporal Norms and Identities

Nov 26-28 | University Library at Singel 425 |

Doelenzaal, Belle van Zuylenzaal

LIVED TIME

Routines, Temporal Norms and Identities

Tuesday, 26 November (Doelenzaal, University Library at Singel 425).

14:00-14:15 Coffee and registration

14:15-14:50 Welcome and introduction by Sofie Remijnsen

14:50-15:30 Eugenio Garosi (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen): Temporal Repertoires in early Islamic Arabic Documentary Texts

Coffee break

Time and epidemics

16:00-16:40 Ignace Glorieux (Vrije Universiteit Brussel): The Counter-revolution of Habits: On Time and Steadiness

16:40-17:20 Max-Quentin Bischoff, Sara Budts, Sanne Hermans, Jeroen Puttevils and Nicolò Zennaro (Universiteit Antwerpen): Tempore Mortalitatis. Future Thinking, Temporalities and Plague in Premodern Europe

17:20-18:00 Kristine Johanson (Universiteit van Amsterdam): Plague Times: Early Modern English Literature and the Temporal Experience of Disease

Wednesday 27 November (Doelenzaal, University Library at Singel 425).

Festive times

9:00-9:40 Stefan Feuser (Universität Bonn): Time(s) of Festivals and Religious Processions in 5th BCE Athens

9:40-10:20 Elsa Lucassen (Universiteit van Amsterdam): Customized Festival Calendars and Festive Rhythm in Late Antique Egypt

10:20-11:00 Cathrien Hoijjck (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen): Exploring the Rationale of a Multi-Religious Festival Calendar in Tenth-Century Córdoba: The Case of the Cordoban Calendar

Coffee break

Bath time

11:30-12:10 Anna Geurts (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen): Travelers, Their Bodies, Unfamiliar Spaces, and the Temporalities of Washing

12:10-12:50 Uta Heil (Universität Wien): Time for a Bath, Christian Ideas and Conflicts

Lunch

LIVED TIME

Routines, Temporal Norms and Identities

Clocks, Schedule and Work

14:00-14:40 Daniel Soliman (Rijksmuseum voor Oudheden): Lived Time in a Community of Ancient Egyptian Royal Necropolis Workmen (Ca. 1292-1077 BCE)

14:40-15:20 Gerrit Verhoeven (Universiteit van Antwerpen / KMSKA): Feeling the Strain? Latecomers, Time Clocks, and Work Discipline in the Royal Museums of Art and History (ca 1890-1940)

Coffee break

15:40-16:20 Mark Hailwood (University of Bristol): Time and Work in Pre-Industrial Rural England

16:20-17:00 Renate Dekker (Universiteit van Amsterdam): On Prayer and Work in the Lives of Monks in Late Antique Egypt

Thursday 28 November (Belle van Zuylenzaal, University Library at Singel 425).

Material history of time

9:00-9:40 Angelika Koch (Universiteit Leiden): Incense and Time in Early Modern Japan

9:40-10:20 Matthew Champion (University of Melbourne): Living with the Sandglass: Material Histories of Lived Time (Online)

Coffee break

Time of sleep and idleness

10:40-11:20 Sarit Kattan-Gribetz (Fordham University): Rabbinic Nightscapes: Lived Time between Sunset and Sunrise

11:20-12:00 Brigitte Steger (University of Cambridge): Timing Sleep and Wakefulness, Timing Kingship and Social Order at the Medieval Heian Court in Japan

12:00-12:40 James Ker (University of Pennsylvania): Unlived Time in Seneca's Prose Writings

Time in a world of fossil fuels

13:40-14:20 On Barak (Tel Aviv University): Petrofutures Past and Present

14:20-15:00 Peter van Dam (Universiteit van Amsterdam): Spending Time with(out) Cars: The Car-free Sunday in the Netherlands, 1939-2009